

About: Gallagher's

The Gallagher family has been baking in the North-West of Ireland since 1968. The bakery is located in the beautiful village of Ardara, Co. Donegal nestled between the Glengesh mountains on the Wild Atlantic Way. Nature is at the heart of everything they do.

At Gallagher's they use only the finest ingredients in their products and take pride in baking delicious bread and cakes that are second to none. They use fresh, local ingredients including buttermilk and mountain spring water. They adhere to traditional baking principles maintained by experienced bakers, who have enhanced their skills over the years to produce the highest quality baked goods. In "PureBred" Gallagher's Bakery has combined years of baking experience with the desire to provide great tasting and nutritionally balanced gluten free bread, and so PureBred, the bread that loves every 'body' is now available. They have created a gluten free range that is not only healthy and nutritious, but tasty! PureBred gluten free products are the perfect choice for celiacs, people with wheat allergies or simply for those choosing a healthier lifestyle.
